Terminal Report Format

(Modified from the DOST Terminal Report Format)

A. Preliminary pages

1. Title page: should contain program, project, study title, project team, collaborators, implementing and funding agencies and month and year of submission.
2. Summary sheet: should include title, project leader, implementing and cooperating agencies, duration of the project, total budget and source of funds
3. Abstract: one-page, single space, not more than 350-word summary encompassing the rationale, methods, results/findings, conclusion and recommendation
4. Acknowledgment: indicate key persons, institution, and other entities contributing to the success of the research
5. Table of contents- outline of major topics covered and corresponding pages.
6. List of tables, figure, graph illustration, appendices, and acronyms/ abbreviation (if any).

B. Text

1. Introduction – state the rationale or background of the research, the significance and the objectives of the program/project/study
2. Review of literature- cite relevant literature and other technical works related to the research.
3. Scientific basis/Conceptual framework
4. Methodology- state the procedures involved, the materials used, sampling procedures., statistical analysis, and other including scope and limitation, time, (seasonality) and place of study.
5. Results and Discussion- present data gathered, analysis, and interpretation of results supported by tables, graphs, pictures, maps, relevant references and others.
6. Summary and conclusion- presentation of summarized results with generalizations/conclusion based on the findings
7. Recommendations
8. Literature Cited- references listed alphabetically by author. Each source shall follow the Following format: author, year, title, edition (if source is a book), place of publication, public (name of journal, if article), page number (if it is an article).
9. Appendices- Sample questionnaire/survey form/interview schedule

C. Problems- cite all technical/administrative problems and recommended solutions.

D. Output – Product Name / Process / Methods / Technology

E. Utilization – Beneficiary (Partner Industry / Community)